LB 42, 965

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: How many will be here?

SENATOR MARSH: Senator Merz, would you indicate with your green light.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Okay, a few more. 9:30, all you have to do is walk in, let the Clerk read in the reports and then walk out. Now, if you can still walk in and walk out, that is all we need. Now, have I made myself clear?

SENATOR MARSH: With only 17 showing green we really need to have more. We need a few more who are willing to be here. Pardon?

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Maybe some of you could have a buddy walk in with you.

SENATOR MARSH: Senator Reutzel.

SENATOR REUTZEL: I would ask the Speaker if we couldn't convene at N Club?

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: You can reconvene from the N Club. I'm sure that will be the case anyway with a lot of you. I have a mystery member of the Legislature that will be there so that makes 25. There is one unwilling to be identified.

SENATOR MARSH: Senator Marsh is giving her final report in class tonight at the University of Nebraska.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Can't we have a few insurance persons here? Like Dworak? Dworak is going to be there anyway.

SENATOR MARSH: That is only 24 we really need....okay, thank you very much.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: I move we recess until 9:30. We are going to have a record of that so we will know who promised to be here.

SENATOR MARSH: We are in recess until 9:30.

SPEAKER CARSTEN: What time tomorrow morning, Mr. Speaker?

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Oh, all right, the usual time about 9:00.
